Dallas, Texas'

Rick Harris and Silverado is a premier country and western live performance band, since 1990.

Bandleader Rick Harris has been a charming, gentlemanly and well-loved country music entertainer for over two decades, accompanying his impressive full-throated vocals with his acoustic rhythm guitar. Rick also is the General Manager of the W-J Ranch and a Foreman for the Renfrew Cattle Company.

Rick has performed with legendary musicians from the Larry Gatlin Band, Jimmy Capps, Bobby Black, Dale Morris, and many other high caliber players and his regular sidemen include some of the best musicians in the area.

Silverado plays frequently at rodeos, brandings, parties and the like, having performed at Tootsie's, The Bluebird Café, Hank Williams' home, Alan Jackson's ranch in Nashville, across the Napa Valley, and at Buck Owens' Crystal Palace in Bakersfield.

Songs featured at a typical appearance include the greatest hits of country music over the years by the likes of Hank Williams, Marty Robbins, Waylon Jennings, Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, Jim Reeves, George Jones, Conway Twitty, Lefty Frizzell, Merle Haggard, Ernest Tubb, Charlie Pride, Garth Brooks, Alan Jackson, Clint Black, and many more.

Rick has recorded at Emerald Studios in Nashville and at Pleasant Valley Music in California, where he has completed two full-length recordings featuring songs he plays at every live performance.
